

( 1970 - Note from Greta Ransom Whitehead :

Gathered in some ways from his words and above :

A NIGHTMARE remembered in the daylight, lingering for some hours, came twice or three times in September after the birth of little Peter 21 st

August 1970

(Peter Rathbone Gordon Palmer Ransom Whitehead 1970-1998)

The words of MALRAUX about the possessions of those he had lost had risen from January 1970 : I think this had me with a NIGHTMARE when we were given the complete Pillar House 28                      th July 1970 ... I awoke with unusual bright coloured imagery                                      ... a dream that had become a Nightmare                                      ...

... I knew in my sleep that our house was extended over the East Gate ... and it stretched into a single story extension of 4 rooms

they were dusty

...
I had to go in

...
but it was dreadful and I had to put my hands over my head in one room

...
One room I entered was still but it was with deep grey sadness

S

...
the next was terrible and I could not enter because of a roaring sound descending from the ceiling and the air of the room

...
but I knew I MUST enter and try calm the anger in there

...
I felt the blows at my head, my brain really, and then a horrible hovering whine noise

...
a buzzing it became

...
but it HOVERED IN THE AIR OF THE ROOM

...
the air was turbulent :

... I was frightened but went in and began to dust the room ... not removing anything of the possessions ... I said to the SPIRIT that I would come every day and bring flowers

...
put them on the windowsill which I had dusted now

...
but I felt I could not enter that room on my own again

...
I said to the VIOLENT SPIRIT I must enter the two other rooms and dust them

...
the sounds began to lessen as I closed the door on this room :
I went on to a room at the end

it was silent and with a baby cot - I knew that nothing could be done here
...
we must be brave
...
another room, the fourth, I did not understand
...
I dusted the rooms
...
I would return every day and perhaps read stories and poems
...
I WOKE UP
...

... I had the same nightmare here in GAUL in the 1990s ... I felt now, with the RECORDS to be assembled, that the angry room was perhaps that of Pierre the eldest son of JOSETTE ... he was 4 when she died ...

A SET OF SEPIA POSTCARDS HE GAVE TO ME FROM THE BRITISH MUSEUM : `

It was to shape up as a beautiful little work of truth showing his early years and how he manages to look forward and try keep holy households

he understands that was how he is raised by THREE GRACES, his mother Berthe, her sister Marie, and their mother Adrienne

... ( whom I call BERTHA - MARY - and ADRIANNA ... but not long ago is 1946 when somebody opens a door on this stolen past : 1946 when I am listing out NAMES for the

He said 1946 Summer

...

I give up

...

I knew you would happen to me !

I am going to make an honest marriage as my mother and her family expected me to do !

... And 1946 he set about mornings at `Stella Maris` home of Bessie-Martha and Annie-Agnes Carroll Williams, turning through the little 12 volumes of the months of BUTLERS SAINTS mid-19th century

...

and listed out his choices for our coming children - he preferred the Gaelic and Celtic names

...

but he still was hesitant about a BOUDICEA

...

& he suggested we limit the family to 9 or even 7 children or he might be laughed at in PARIS
