1945 That summer the Widower ANDRE MALRAUX granted Colonel status... brought over a lemon yellow linen suit for GR. & Uncle Harry Gordon said

you wore it at a Horse & Farmers Fair I took you both to near Colchester with the old Winnlemanns-wanted to see the occasion-learn about old & modern life over here- that s what he was noting for France-for his future career

ANDRE

The lemon suit was quickly taken off me-I have to say I was a little uncomfortable in it-boxy & too short-I do prefer gathered & flaired skirts that are old fashioned-at school we are very Pre-raphelite-& I am not a modern person & prefer to be a girl-not look sleek-It may have been worn by Esther-

o you remember- when we went to

Salisbury January 1954

& we were to have a baby in the summer & we had taken up our VOWS again-

I began to tell you more of our unit Summer 1937-our family when you were 4 years & some months old & took charge of me for I had my nerves from SPAIN & you spoke sometimes like an expert for your family had taught you well

STARS-I am looking up at them here beside your new home this caravan where you have earned the money for working for your mother all summer-where you have fled a few days ago...I want to go back & start again as we began 1937-A YOUNG WOMAN WHO WAS WITH US IS NOW DEAD

....That

summer 1937

we were a unit- four sometimes five of us - those days a happy family-1954... When we were being driven to Salisbury I had a hat from a poet -you have seen a film made of his ideas- a man of letters is reading some of the poems he has translated from the Greek- (1958 Rex Warner-George SEFRIS poet & Diplomat - Bodley Head

) I felt rather silly wearing this hat ...perhaps it was not big enough for my head-

But that morning we left London I had called on him at breakfast time- the poet said it would be so cold on Salisbury Plain & insisted I loan his hat

On the way we were to get some of your Grandfather Gordon's paintings from the cottage of his youngest brother Edgar who had died before the War began-but the place was locked ...you took some photographs in colour-I am standing by the cottage-the whole area was to be turned into a motorway with areas of commerce about

YOU CAN SEE IT IN YOUR HEAD IF YOU TRY- it is only a handful of years ago...no time compared with the TIME you & I experience in the great Museums when I have met you for a few minutes in the middle of our days these last 3 years
