`the summer of HAPPINESS 1937...

1937 November- SHEshe Teresa Gordon R. yanked me down to the Tennis Club by my little arm- the inside Court- & a dreadful fuss made with SHEshe demanding to know who I had been with that Summer- but they said they did not know & told her to ask her husband - surely her young husband would know even though she had been away all summer with her noble friends
...

1937 SUMMER HOLIDAY Clacton-on-Sea - (Malraux 1970) "...you were in the Kindergarte n you informed me- age 4-a-half years old & had a Bottom Drawer
for your marriage-
I made some notes`
says
ANDRE MALRAUX
with a mock grim face in 1957 November-

`Your bottom drawer it had many nice things in it & others were to come to you. You had not chosen your husband-to-be but many little girls & boys at the Convent School had chosen whom they would marry.

And did I receive an

Offer of Marriage

in 1937

& again in 1938

YES I DID !

And from you !

On a Christmas card- & the next year 1938 there came a message that if

JO

did not want to marry me then your Aunt Winnie said you could marry me when you were 16 years of age

...

. & I sent you a message by my

Bluebird

on my Water Jar in Spain

but I was not sure if he would be able to remember it as it was a long message.

I wrote it to you & Mary Gordon your grandmother-

I said `Jo & I were happy together but we, that is you & I with she Jo , would meet again-

MEET AGAIN- & I

WOULD FIND YOU HAD GROWN

...

but I would still be the same height

..."

I ANDRE MALRAUX November 1957 read you all this from my note books & found that you could not remember anything the next week when I returned...W

E HAD EVIL PEOPLE ABOUT US

(I can remember my small body trembling that JO may not want him & he will go off & marry someone else...I must hurry & grow...it is decided by the families I am going to be tall ...)

1954 January in Salisbury Cathedral- an icy cold as it had January morning winters when it was a new building ...at 10 am the Verger has just lit the cast iron stoves down the aisles

ANDRE MALRAUX

reads his notebooks of 1937-we sit in the Nave-

“A PACKAGE sent for Christmas 1937- sandalwood soap for Mary Gordon-something else sweet scented-a tie pin for Harry & two-I think more- little books for a little girl-& fan mail- We sent you Fan Mail- Sandalwood Soap for your grandmother recently widowed.

Were the books for you ?

Greetah

Maureen-

Yes for you- who had helped a Battle-worn pair-a young man & a younger woman enjoy their first visit to EAST ANGLIA-

you showed us landmarks & landscapes & old buildings-& the seaside & a Castle at ORFORD

with people staying summers whom we knew in Paris-

(Notebooks Summer 1937-

readings by ANDRE MALRAUX

in Salisbury Cathedral January 1954)

(The Orford Castle family live in PARIS in the wintertime-their ancestors built it-they come down for the Summer holidays-but seem to have not been at home when we called to trot over it . We will call again in 1945 July with Uncle Harry Gordon- it was neat & tidy but no family-they sold it at the end of the 20th century-it is a Museum)

ANDRE MALRAUX “ SUMMER 1937... And a Castle that was closed but of such a tremendous size- & `wounded by decay but housing a magnificent collection of Romano-British objects` (Malraux has in his hands a publication from the Castle Museum given us by HWP & we have been asked to look for some details from ROMAN SORBIUDUNUM

BUT

the Castle at Colchester was closed & we have had to wait many years & experience another

Great War-

as you told me about the Great WAR in 1937-

The Great War

that was spoken of at your Grandparents home on Sundays after Church

...”

Greta Ransom remembering with George Andre - `We had come back from the evening & called on Unity 's Grandpa about 8 pm & done other things- & now we sat out in the garden with the things to eat growing until after midnight -we seem to have had a supper & been dancing.

We have bid

JOJo

goodnight & sent her to get her beauty sleep.

But she comes down again because she is so safe & happy away from

SPAIN The War-

ANDRE

has asked of me again about that lecture by Teilhard de Chardin- & will I demonstrate

HOW

to put his mind on a

STAR-`

I Greta Ransom said I thought

M. T.

de C.

if you concentrated

- `but Daddy did say I had not understood it-

He found out more from a friend who was there with us..`

So that night 1937 we chose a very faint star that is left at the top of the 7-Sisters to begin our experiment

1957 when ANDRE MALRAUX asked me to get his mind down as he felt he needed it... I could not remember if it was on the top right or left of

The 7-Sisters

-& the nights are not so clear now-

He refers to the need of his mind again-

1937 They the grown-ups those days & summer nights Speak upon the Red Fort & other writers & artists- Stella Bown an Australian Artist- Ford Madox Brown or Ford Madox Ford ...I forget...

& the grown-ups often go into the French language if we are alone- Apart from Roger Fry

s book & some drear tones upon the awful death of the artist Dora Carrington & remarks on Lytton Strachey
