ANIMALS AT THE DINING TABLE & ATTENDING CHURCH-

Families kindly with an orderly household can often raise an animal so- & by having them from birth- CAIN Ransom our 2nd son Antigua a crocodile-they adopted him at 12-inches old- He had a cart with his toys a bed a hammock a jewelled collar for parties under the moon went to church on Sundays & 2 servant girls who adored him- He kept himself spotlessly clean in the river night & day-kept the hours of the day as if wearing a pocket-watch- He loved evening when the family would dine & sat with them & any guests-loved to hear music readings of poems & conversation- The family tried teach him to read signs- & were sure Cain `our second son` could write a poem about his happiness if only they could discover how to have him do this- adjust his eyes to letters in a book

Cain Ransom was born about 1791 but he never killed his brother- The original idea was to have him a pet & he would keep the river clear- but Cain had no idea these other creatures were anything to do with him- `After the hurricane came it was Cain who began to clear up the house garden the balcony- dragging things back to their places-`
