until girls reached 16-17 years of age - it was felt that we should get her away- The Convent had suffered in the War but were getting on their feet-pupils helped with the chores - collected eggs tended a vegetable garden - it was felt to be a happy place -

1945 - MURDER OF ANDRE MALRAUX intended -

Malraux notebooks- 1970 reads : `IT WAS A STILL NIGHT ... there were some electric lights in the Rec- but shining on the paths only- people came for a walk with dogs the evenings now the War was over - I had a shortcut from the Boating Lakes to the paths by the Tennis Courts leading to the broad Avenue lined with small trees & shrubs

IT IS A HOLY PLACE ...here he was with JOSETTE ...his chosen Roman Catholic wife...

SUMMER of HAPPINESS 1937....

(Greetah Ransom has told him summer 1945... “ The Royal Way for our Wartime games

...

or the Road to the PLACE of the High Kings

...

or the Neolithic Times way to the cliffs

...

or Anglo-Saxon times to our church & village

...”

I am telling him June-July 1945 as I lasso him Colonel Andre X)

...

1945 October “ I Andre Malraux widower...stopped by the Tennis courts with the dog -& I might light a cigarette- I had behind me the Railways & the big Shed where the trains came for a re-fit an overhaul

...

I turned at a sound not unusual- a cloud of steam with a great noise hissed into the night air where blue lights lit the great shed-

As I did so

.....

I HEARD THE CRACK OF A BULLET HITTING THE WIRE beside me -a close mesh net so the balls could not fly - then I thought I heard another as I dropped to the ground !

I was sweating

...

I had enemies

...

I had left some I felt

...

I crawled slowly towards the paths - then I heard the sounds of voices coming from the other direction-I got up-found the old dog`s lead ... he had been with the Winnlemans in their Internment the Race Course Epsom-

Oh a piece of failure-someone in panic Whitehall

I quickly went towards the people 5 or so - then another couple with their dogs & said to them what had happened - I did not know them- I walked with them-
(he was more shocked than scared!)

It was after 8 pm... Greetha came across from THE HOUSE AT THE END OF THE REC... she told me slowly

her father

s Army guns were all laid out on his bed Peter

...
& her mother had showed them to little Colin

...
John was told
NOT TO TOUCH THEM

...
I learned some this years later

...
He Captain Frederick John RANSOM
intended taking them to Colchester (Camulodunum Colonia Victricensis

to have them checked in - Army rules Greetha & Harry said -
He also had a collection of ancient guns he had made in Kenya - he trained in Gunnery as a young man

...
a teenager

Greta

s mother we years later heard had tried get little Colin
s fingerprints on some of the guns that day
...
by then it was known she went insane after she had been with her Noble friends
...

She was still giving signatures to her noble friends-they promised her a fortune... they came down in big cars after dark 1943 & 1944
-the town had rows of houses shut because of the War-fearing Invasion

...

Y ou know about the plane crash that first year of the War

...

on the Holland cliffs

...

I spoke with him in Germany & his family- he came back to the Clacton beach -they had saved his life by directing him with search lights towards the beaches the sea

...

THEY GAVE HIM LIFE

...

Greetah

saw the plane caught in the searchlights from her bed the tiny room facing East in
THE HOUSE AT THE END OF THE REC

...

It has stayed with her because she learned there was not total loss of life -
SHE COULD ALWAYS REMEMBER THAT
when she lived with me

(... THE BEACH IS JO`s BEACH...of course...)

1945 `That October evening - It was about 10 minutes later after the two shots at my back that Greetha came quietly & found me- I had crawled to the end of the heavy metal nets & got up very slowly when I heard their voices coming towards the paths - otherwise I was going to crawl on hands & knees to the entrance of the REC- or perhaps the other way to the ancient Farm House ... friends of Esther

s husband Fred Potter

...

.Greta came in her school raincoat & Wellington boots

...

all she had to wear that summer 1945 - until she was given some shoes that fitted -
She came like a wraith

called no greeting only a calm smile to me & a bow of the head

...

but this was her LANDS & here she played her games of what I was told in early 1945
June by Miss Win were MAKE-BELIEVE

she stood a little distance from the people I had gone to stand amongst-
(I age 12 years am shy & he Colonel Andre is clearly a NOBLE MAN)

...

I called to her by her name (Greetha) & said quietly I wished to go quickly to the Rec
Entrance in Vista Road & return to the Winnlemanns - that she should go home

& I learned her father was not there & had left days earlier for London she felt

...

she seemed to have forgotten I needed to speak with him
