

1957 autumn/winter LONDON - `The early morning newspaper happenings are spoke aloud upon by just woken up bundled figures both men & women... Londinium/The Scarlet Town... early morning Workers on buses in the very early mornings ... I go a couple of times to hear him Preach in shirt sleeves at Southwark Cathedral... 6.00 am A Workers Mass by the river & ancient steps...`

I could be a normal young girl of my times - too tall for the modern taste , hair long in a pony tail or in a Penny bun ( its on the early Victorian penny copper coin )

book of POEMS in a pocket/

a bucket bag slung on a shoulder full of the day`s needs- books notebook compact & lipstick...& sometimes a flask of tea or coffee -

I count the pennies as always ...

About the METROPOLIS I go ... IN & OUT of other centuries for I have work & learning in Museums ...
as at Colchester not so much of Ancient Roman Britain & GAUL

Harold Walter POULTER, of The Hollytrees Mansion Museum at Camulodunum/Colchester has said on a visit in October 1957

“ get to know the 18th & 19th centuries Child - it could be more helpful to ANDRE ... but do not comment on modern matters GAUL »

I Greta Maureen Caecelia young Madam X hath a still young EMPEROR come from GAUL, Andre X -George-Georgie-`

.... he may meet me for 20 minutes about 1 pm in the British Museum... by the Gates of Nineveh or even in UR

... or the Geological where he leaves a postcard now & then if he has a full day

... I am to find it on the way home about 5.00pm

... once or twice he has jumped out on me by the Moonstones case ...I like to look into ancient mirrors with him in the Vic & Bert Museum

he makes my knees go weak sometimes if he gets too close

...

1957 - We - Georges-Andre & Greta, have lost a mere 10 years & to me 24 years of age our life stretches ahead but to ANDRE MALRAUX not so very much

He MALRAUX says “ I have you back & we can look forward to 20 years...I can leave you with children three...

perhaps four then... perhaps I can live a little

... I REGRET THE 10

YEARS STOLEN FROM US ...

We were lied to ... I most of all

We are going to live quietly here & we have the permission of my General ...”

1957 December evening - “ I have forbidden Mr Mengele entry to the door ! I chased him to his DIVE in Paris the other night - he has a cellar down a narrow sloping lane

He invites other men in & HE GOES MAD ON DOPE

A stout door that he can lock - there is one part I thought I might slide ... but I reached him before he could lock himself in - I told him I would hit him with my knuckle dusters on if he came through our door !

I have to go away after New Year for General de Gaulle...

but you will be safe here in our home...”

Andre Malraux Notebooks read 1970 Harwell The Pillar House/

/GUYANAS Tour...records/Life at 50 Lancaster Gate Square/records Detective Arthur Malone/Philip Silverlee too/

ANDRE MALRAUX still cannot understand the hatred behind his back about London Town & sometimes in Paris - Mengele is sometimes called "A Peculiar physician" in learned circles & disapproved of very much so

He

is a nuisance but ANDRE cannot get rid of him for he is APPOINTED by the wives in Gaul who have him staying with them sometimes/they have their own lives
