1970 April - sale of PILLAR HOUSE the back half with big garden :

I told Mrs Jeffreys an hour later that morning ! “...if you would like to telephone Peter's cousin he will tell you we can buy the house soon- late Spring

...& we will give you the asking price 12 & a half thousand pounds...”

She said

`we want you to have it- put it back in one house- we only separated it because we got robbed in Wantage with a shop`

She described to me the house as it was built... how the West sun came in the side & front windows & the calm she felt entering. But they had been robbed horribly by a Manager in a little shop Wantage they had opened...& her husband had to work full-time the garage they had opened to keep going ...

She said then young Derek Southall Artist came with his family
