& close by is the tiny early Anabaptist Chapel

(to be a wood cutters workshop)

leading to the Valley Road that descends then rises to the Holland cliffs - I say that we can continue the Old Road & come to the Doctor Barnardo's Home for Orphans & see the tiny Greek temple Masonic Lodge -

“...then we reach the old Quaker Meeting House where people come from London to hear him preach once a month wearing a stovepipe hat & his wife & the other ladies in black with lace collars sit on the steps of the white wood houses & smoke CLAY PIPES on Saturdays. He the Old Preacher is INSPIRING...& people come from London Town to hear him speak to us all :

` Then walking the WAY TO THE SEA we shall see the modern churches Christian Scientists-Baptists-Methodists - All townspeople now more or less go to church but some have to work in summer but come in winter & then we ALL have a good midday dinner at half past one o`the clock... even 2 pm if we linger speaking with others in the bracing cold on the SEAFRONT

`Then we reach the big church over the road from OUR HOUSE where we are having our holiday...& I say that I can be taken to church with Granny Gordon & they, Andre & Jo if they like to be alone, they can make this WALK TO THE SEA & hear the singing of so many different kinds & Ages...on Sundays.
But the Catholic Church has many Services all the days of the week & is the best “ like a theatre”
