

1959 17/18th December late night - Miss Butler does not seem to have told ANDRE of this visit but it is very likely Mengele Harrington pushed it at the back of her memory...in his various medical un-professional ways... he only had to ask for a cup of tea... But she would have her head in a whirl as Malone filled her in a little on the happenings at 50 Lancaster Gate Square. THEN THE ARRIVAL of MALRAUX ...& her words... "ENTER MY DEAR ANDRE...I have been wishing to meet you for nearly 20 years...about my niece & the inheritance..."

The SUDDEN MOVE TO Colne Engaine of Greta was not known until 23rd December after she calling with a present at HOLLYTREES MANSION MUSEUM Colchester & being greeted by Poulter saying cheerfully "...Got you a berth...go & see Sprack...I am taking this party about the house.."

Aunt Terry Butler left on the 19th December for her sisters...Greta expected to see her after Christmas 1959 for she would return for New Year Eve 1960 in Thorpe-le-Soken ... Harry said something about an early supper ... Records/a number of people/

The pages of this document for them BOOK OF SUMMER 1937 have in 1957 ANDRE MALRAUX speaking upon

“ THE XMAS CARD YOU SENT ME 1937/1938 ”

THE ARRIVAL - of Saint George-ANDRE MALRAUX &

“ A YOUNG LADY ” sometimes tearful this first afternoon...

1937 JOSETTE JoJoh&Joh ... comes for summer to

THE SEAS EDGES... It is the first afternoon of their arrival & we go to Holland-on-sea the seafront for we must visit Unity's grandpa in the Convalescent Home, we take it in turns. All say hello then leave two of us with him then perhaps change over - We begin to make the beaches below 'our beach'.

SHE, JOJoh, is sad & I watch her go to the water's edge then return, take off her stockings & high heels of brown & again to the seas edge...she walks in the waves that are gently retreating perhaps. A few people are in deck chairs in small groups & some are swimmers.
I have noted the people ahead of us on the lower promenade as we all walk that first afternoon to make a meeting place/camp/ on the beach
& I am almost tearful & feel I will not be wanted with two so tall people speaking French/English
....& Freddie-Theatre is to come along a little later to be introduced...

Then Freddie & Unity's mother whom I sometimes call 'Stella' talk seriously to ANDRE. Y es- he has made her unhappy for he will not travel with her.
She has come from Marseille at first dressed like a sailor boy to avoid one Clara who chases them with a gun.

She must not tell her friends where they are come he has instructed her !

George

-Andre has come by airplane to Croydon

...

we take off in our seaplanes from friends air strips

...

we go up to Greenland for a beer`

I hear this phrase said quietly when we are to go sailing on high with the stars...`

Freddie & Stella tell him Andre-or-George to go & walk with JO & that she is a young girl & he should remember this...

(...is he a bully boy then ...? We have one on the family Tree 12th century AD Palestine

`Bully Boy Ransom-his penance was not to step on earth for 20 years-

He kept it up & came out reformed !

He married Roxanne/

Rose-anne

& their eldest son married

Hebythiaea

a poetess & their son was accepted by `Goldi-locks niece of an Arab scholar Trader.

I have 3 Palestine Grandmothers in a row back then in TIME)

1937 Summer - JO is very tall hair light brown but sometimes sun streaks...I think clothes like Auntie Esther wears & her friends & they cling a bit.

Jo has a bolero too & colours are soft browns cream-fawn & JO has an orangey-striped blouse a hat she pulls on & off that is fashionable from the modern films.

We cannot use the 'Stella Maris' beach hut at the top of these Holland beaches to make tea... sleep down two nights-local people do so & Annie is sitting on the steps with no shoes or stockings & explains she is allowed to be a child again here for she had her mother die when she was 2 years. She tells us how she will see the dawn & with the other occupants of the chalets they will sit out & enjoy WATCHING THE WORLD GO BY & see the night come over the sea

Stella-
artist draws me away so as to leave ANDRE speaking with Annie-artist...a good 10 minutes before he feels politeness should have him retire...to us...he has learned soon all about the Liverpool Catholic Mission she & her sister began as girls...& that Greetah`s grandmother their sister is now just widowed...
He felt this explained my solemn face...

- Stella is also another artist & brings things to show my father Fred John Ransom sometimes-like the family do because of Aunt Margarethe & her parents-they also speak Greenlandic & everything else round THE HOMES.

When I try a few words other languages

SHEshe

threatens-

she has just picked up the wireless March & threw it out of the window into the road because Lennie

polymath

& FLYER artist too had taught me some German names - the wireless had two big accumulator batteries in- with acids.

Aunt Winnie says we must try do more for her

let her go out with her friends/fiends.

WE DO NOT ASK ANNIE IF WE CAN MAKE TEA as it would be impolite...To my surprise ANDRE-

George

speaks with Annie for about 10 minutes

She will have told him she did Art at Liverpool & her Professor was the Catholic MANZONI, Prof. of Anatomy Liverpool Colleges to be a University-

She designs gravestones for local people & makes a water-colour of the headstone for people when they ask so they can have it in a hall or a sitting room above a writing desk ...

Aunt Winnie says 'she does do things for The Church & possibly Ireland but Annie is modest' & Grandpa Gordon ( died in March this year) would know all this being a painter but un-trained...It was his elder brother Fred Henry Gordon who had the fashionable drawing Master at the Trafalgar Tavern where they grew up & their Father

'mine host'

Frederick John Gordon to the Whitebait Suppers...'

records/Crail/Stella Maris/Lennie LIR/Detectives & Colleagues-ANDRE MALRAUX-

1937 - ANDRE but to be called George when people near ...

is always talking earnestly to people & very polite is he - I have nobody Ransom-Weddell

-Frobisher

at home this summer

& Lennie my-best-friend - my-uncle 12 years older has gone off

where I do not know ... suppose for his superior education round the world to use all his languages ...

He has to go at sometime with others scouts & people & make a report on Hitler's School Oldenburg -

On the beach Holland-on-Sea, I listen to them all as I set about making a Sand Banquet to please them & because I feel a bit useless to the guests Andre & JoJoh&Jo... They & Stella talk in & out of Britain & Gaul tongues ... but they have no Spanish like `Jerusalem`...

Freddie comes parking his little car above the cliffs but he will not stay for he has his theatre & must be there before Curtain Up ... But it is happily settled & he is to come out with us to Dedham later in the week & we are to pop in anytime to the Theatre, rehearsals or ask for tickets for performance...

then he dashes to his little car & he must rush off to his Clacton Theatre for they put on very good performances

Here with us is the sad tall girl JoJO&Joh as he G-or-A calls her & perhaps cheering a tiny bit as she learns of things nice to do...

Georges-ANDRE MALRAUX ? He a little impatient I felt... often nodding down at the ground from his tall very tall frame & a worried expression

com`th & go`th

but he is very polite to all of us & tosses his locks which sometimes cover half a cheek as he gyrates...

He has held my hand as we crossed the road & began the descent to the beaches but he holds my arm too high & then he does not notice me again I think.

He picked me up early afternoon from my brother's cot where I was standing on my tip-toes as JEAN does every day for 2 hours practice... I had been left for a sleep until they would come for me-with the key...

Stella

the half Jewish lady takes care of me when we ask- we pay her well for she has a sick husband-

I hide under her sink from Mr Pong & the one he goes around with a Lindsaybuggarh to be 14 -I run when they have

SHEshe

let them in our house

Nota bene : This is the Lindsay No 14 to be that Markham Makepeace carries a gun on his hip from age 10 years to keep away from him ! He lives holidays in The ROYAL with his ancient forebear...

he is about 16 years & speaks with Len not with small girls...

Andre OR George he takes up impossible degrees in the air - as you see in the silent comic films-Charlie Chaplin & others where they use invisible wires to support themselves.

Soon MALRAUX of SPAIN stepped backward as if in a dance movement & trod on my sand Orange soufel for I can read some things in the cookery books at Mary Helena Gordon's home...she my grandmother. I burst into tears & sobbed & after studying me from his great height & listening to my clear sentence & firm voice amongst the sobs I got picked up & put on his shoulder & comforted when he heard me say I had made it for all of them - a sand banquet to give an appetite for the evening supper...

I felt I was his teddy bear...

On Sundays I must appear a flower-fairy...wear a frock for church...it is the day I am a girl...

1937 Summer - In a month with them every day I have gathered some more TIME TO BE STORED IN THE TREASURY OF THE ARCHIVES OF LIFE...you store it for your lamplight days when you will have time to write, says my father FJR... but Grandpa Ransom has often written things since he found The Island in the SNOW... JEAN sometimes does things for foreign newspapers...

I am to direct ANDRE & JOSETTE to LINCOLN they have agreed - I saying I know how to book a hotel & have 'been away a year & not seen much of Great Britain' ...

ANDRE & GEORGES doth not believe that the Nord-Sud Poles tour is true & I am asked by Stella to see they have a good holiday & forget Spain...& NOT to talk about my own troubles...`

She knows a woman known by everyone to be a drunk who keeps catcalling at my father & his relatives that the Old Eskimo has left her everything...
I wonder if she also WAVES A GUN...as this Clara...

1937 summer - Stella say'th `I want to get them in Rooms on their own Freddie not a hotel- he will NOT be seen in a hotel with her unless they have separate rooms- Clara is threatening to kill her...both of them- Yes... she has been seen waving a gun in Paris- they left France separately - a friend had to help disguise herself as Jo

& sit in the window every morning with the newspaper
& the evening when she would put on a big hat...

It crosses my mind that supposing Clara shot the friend in the window pretending to be JO ? We just grab some seaplanes & are away sometimes at night...or a train that Aunt Margarethe owns or a ship with Alfred Charles RN or the fast launch that Grandpa Ransom & his cousin Count Poulsen drive like a team of 6 black horses across Oceanus Germanicus...

In December 1946 Alfred Charles Ransom Rear Admiral says “THEY HAVE WORN THE LAUNCH OUT...driving it like a team of horses...”

“Jo came over on her own from Marseilles- she disguised herself as a sailor- Oh Clara will kill her Freddie-& him perhaps

They are to stay the night-perhaps the next two or three days with me...”
Freddie said he would look for Rooms near his Theatre

They moved in quickly & we went past & waved at them in two upper front rooms of a simple house in the Theatre road -

When we took them out that morning they asked could they move back in with us -
They paid the full 2 weeks they had taken the Rooms for...everyone was happy

thus began`th

DOWN TO THE SEAS in the Dawn` collecting his newspapers of the World

1937 October - Every day I can recall I will relate in October to 'Jerusalem' my grandparents Ransom little house by the sloping Deptford Park & I tell what the newspapers were ... Newspapers of London & East Anglia & Colchester -Church Times' The Daily Worker too/some foreign papers-& Granny Gordon has the Irish Everything from Southern Ireland/ Annie Agnes a Welsh newspaper she reads aloud from sometimes...

Dawn- begin`th our journeys to be first footsteps on the wet beaches - ANDRE-Saint George ...
& `the Prophet`
he called me.

JO was happy for us to go about the town & down to the SEAS sometimes before the first light crept over the town - To Adventure the Holland marshes ...

` Came rosy fingered dawn the Child of early morn IN HER CLOAK OF GREY

Say`th

ANDRE become Saint Georges sometimes gets extra things for our meals - & he bids people Good-day/ Guden-morgen - smiles & talks seriously & happily all there & back - & often thoughtfully brings back the ' baker's cakes ' ...so we shall have some for our tea all the time BECAUSE IT IS A HOLIDAY !

1937 summer - He drinks lots of tea (perhaps from living some years in Asia) `a teapot to himself` we say smiling...sometimes coffee *not too often

- a few fags- a glass of wine in the evenings with food ...

Georges-ANDRE has heard when chattering round the Town & buying what he likes round the fishy shops that the first beach West of the Clacton Pier the groyne has limpets as well as mussels ...

& I hear Aunt Winnie say the dark greenish popper weed is the shade made popular by Dante Gabriel Rossetti in paintings & décor)

...

Andre is telling Josette how he used to collect the limpets when a boy on family seaside holidays at Brittany ... he born 1901...holidaying until a big boy...
