This raining night warm to our faces hands & legs- we may if pleases us walk the promenade towards the end in the DARK NIGHT passing happy holiday makers smoking fags wearing raincoats umbrellas unfurled like dark pansy flowers-all enjoying the THE SOUNDS OF THE SEA-

Everybody cheerful for their holiday.

Solid glass covered areas have seats out of the rain-older folk sit & stroll a bit - There are places open to eat a bite-take a summer drink in a tall glass or a last nightcap in a Pub or café- fish & chips in newspaper to eat out of the rain-

WE THREE can walk as far as the Holland beach now called JO's beach to see if Unity's mother has her car outside the Home visiting her Father-or we take another direction if we feel like the extra stroll-We could catch a lift home if we find she is still there- but we may not want to-it is our lazy night-

Concerning the above family histories- I may tell Jo & Andre things but will be selective & not say ugly things-but I hath to warn them that these

MONSTERS FROM THE DEEP

may appear at their crouching Jurassic dog the GRAND-but I will not say what the townsfolk call them `piles of dog s dirt along our Seafront

Monsters- Figures from a Morgue- may make a lightening visit to rob highways & bye ways & townsfolk-if they finish with misbehaving in London & up & down Europe-I doth not know yet of Spain horrors

However Unity's mother our hostess has been quite careful in laying down the LAW here to "the young people Andre & Miss Jo Elliot- they heed me when I say "w e take the lower promenades here "

1937 SUMMER Over the five weeks as our days dawned some were carefully plannedthere were trips with picnics visits & teas-explorations & buying some wine for the evening meals at home from Colchester-other days unplanned were very agreeable to us all for we might lazily choose what to doan unexpected holiday indeed for us all -& it gave our hostess more time with her dying father-already faces are a little solemn-

I will never in my entire life have this length of HAPPY TIME again free of the violence/horror/threats/fear/from a Class that made itself criminally insane on opium-all dopes liquors & living the big time in debt- believing themselves divine- Controlling newspapers Institutions Armed forces-& if finding there any resistance destroying characters-careers- killing !

GREED & MADNESS OF THE DOPE-FIENDS OF HIGH CLASS SIN GROSS BRITAIN- who use the State

1937 August - JO goes to London Town again to see a friend & go to the John Constable Exhibition at the Royal Academy Andre will see it elsewhere & she has to take luncheon with a friend s friend old Quiller Couch it may be to do with a book by 2 French authors on English Literature/ people who know people perhaps or have studied with themQuiller-Couch was the very young friend of JOHN RANSOM educationalist & Millie Frobisher- He helped Mill sell her wedding painting to the National Gallery when she was further robbed by Earl Lindsaybuggarh & their victim after they had murdered John RANSOM her husband in the playground of Hithergreen School at night 1890-

(He put some Medieval pots in the London Museum at this time-I got the Barbican Museum to look up the record/I had seen the collection from Cheapside 1957 with information at the South Kensington Museum-) Millie

s painting is a modern piece 1880s-it reminded her of her future husband s SEA ANCESTRY & she looked forward to sons

Her second son was drowned by order of Lindsaybuggarhs at 3 months old

The painting was sold to a leading London Gallery with Quiller-Couch handling the matter

Lindsaybuggarh Earls rushed to change documentation 1920s cousins LINDSAY-they & EARL Lindsay began by destroying her reputation with their foul black tongues reaching to their boots-

She REFUSED to marry one of them

(a family line from her mother who knew they were criminally insane)

They

stabbed Millie in the eye with a steel pen to get her Frobisher Lands Florida & she was half blind from this-

She owned these Orange Groves Florida with her only brother in Canada

These monstrous Lindsay figures from a Morgue delivered her little body into my future Grandpa Ransom

s arms at the door of their little home `Jerusalem` by the tiny sloping Park Deptford-he was 14 years of age-

She an athlete with a little school of Ancient Arts & an Exhibition ice skater -Winston Churchill describes her Skating performance-January 1960 to Philip Silverlee who related it from his notes after the visit-

Records/accounts/

Millie Mrs JOHN RANSOM widow-husband murdered 1890 by Lindsay mob after stealing his C apital

& passport & CLAIMING JACOPSHOLMEN ISLAND off Xristenshab-

She has signed away the last of her possessions her Florida Lands shared with her brother in Canada because the LINDSAYS COUSINS were threatening to drag her 14 years old son Frederick Charles Frobisher RANSOM by his feet behind a carriage-Later Newspapers USA told how the two Lindsay cousins shot one another dead in the Orange Groves-ruined by them-

The Earl came over in big R.N. ship- He received 17/- shillings-

The lands would take 30 years to recover- liquor bottles were everywhere-a half coloured wife & child of 2 years lay shot dead too possibly a babe few weeks old taken away-perhaps to safety-

1937 SUMMER...how much detail I would hath told Andre & JO of the tragedy of John &Millie Ransom is with some doubt-or I might have been firm that WEGO & SEE JERUSALEMthe sweet house of my Ransom grandparents-whereMILL SITS ON THE STAIRS WITH HER SKATING BOOTS she never looked more than 17 years of age-BUT I DID NOT KNOW OF QUILLER COUCH AT THAT TIME -or it had slipped my mind-
