MATTHEW ARNOLD

THE FORSAKEN MERMAN

COME, dear children, let us away ;
Down and away below,
Now my brothers call from the bay ;
Now the great winds shorewards blow ;
Now the salt tides seawards flow ;
Now the wild white horses play,
Champ and chafe and toss in the spray,
Children dear, let us away,
This way, this way,
Call her once before you go,
Call once yet,
In a voice that she will know :
"Margaret! Margaret!"
Children's voices should be dear
(Call once more) to a mother's ear :
Children's voices, wild with pain,
Surely she will come again,
Call her once and come away,
This way, this way,
"Mother dear, we cannot stay,"
The wild white horses foam and fret,
Margaret! Margaret!
Come, dear children, come away down,
Call no more,
One last look at the white-walled town,
And the little grey church on the windy shore,
Then come down,
She will not come though you call all day,
Come away, come away,
Children dear, was it yesterday
We heard the sweet bells over the bay?
In the caverns where we lay,

6 MATTHEW ARNOLD

Through the surf and through the swell,
The far-off sound of a silver bell?
Sand-strewn caverns, cool and deep,
Where the winds are all asleep:
Where the spent lights quiver and gleam ;
Where the salt weed sways in the stream ;
Where the sea-beasts ranged all round
Feed in the ooze of their pasture-ground ;
Where the sea-snakes coil and twine,
Dry their mail and loak in the brine ;
Where great whales come sailing by,
Sail and sail, with unshut eye,
Round the world for ever and ay?
When did music come this way?
Children dear, was it yesterday?

Children dear, was it yesterday
(Call yet once) that she went away?
Once she sat with you and me,
On a red gold throne in the heart of the sea,
And the youngest sat on her knee,
She combed its bright hair, and she tended it well,
When down swung the sound of the far-off bell,
She sighed, she looked up through the clear green
sea,
She said : " I must go, for my kinsfolk pray
In the little grey church on the shore to-day,
'Twill be Easter-time in the world—oh me !
And I lose my poor soul, Merman, here with thee,"
I said : " Go up, dear heart, through the waves,
Say thy prayer, and come back to the kind sea-
caves,"
She smiled, she went up through the surf in the bay,
Children dear, was it yesterday?
