-staff member Nicholas was alarmed at a story of the `

OLD MAN-in Aunt Winnie's bed

Andre & I could explain-a true event of late winter 1937- before the summer with Jo & he...

'He was widowed-too early said Granny Gordon-& they had to give up the house-he had been an old friend from the days of the 1900s when they were all young- perhaps he'd been on the stage or in the Army-or was Irish or Welsh like her father's family on his father's side John Williams' - He is frail & begins to cry in the tiny sitting-room at Crail.[][] Granny says 'I'll go down Town Hall-they can put him in one of the Convalescent Homes on the Front-empty in winter & they can put his name down for a place.[] He can come down here Clacton or near.[][] You and the child must sleep on the floor here- you on the couch Winnie- the child on cushions on the floor.[] He is to have some peace to-night-a day or two...said Granny Gordon-

He stayed 4 or 5 nights & Harry went to Mrs Garage to sleep & Curley gave him a bed- Harry gave up his big front room.[] Granny kept the Widower warm fed & he went back to London to clear up his things & to return.

Treasa dirtied it- & Mr Pong

I expect Mr Pong & Earl Lindsaybuggarhs & their pack of wild animals also made fun

when they next saw Auntie Winifred Gordon in the town with respectable folk-or on the Church steps after Mass ![] Granny says 'he's widowed too early-she's gone too early.[] He'll come to us-stay down here winter a bit.[] They can put him in the place on the front-always Vacances in winter.[] He'll not be expected to pay.[] I'll have a word-
TELL BESSIE

...if they like he can come to us for meals-but they'll give him a good bed.

I have told ANDRE & JO of this 1937- It is perhaps before Grandpa dies in March 1937- We visit this very Convalescent Home on the seafront in summer 1937-

ANDRE MALRAUX speaks " Do you recall-do you remember what you told me 1937 Summer on the beach-[] 'I believe that this is really

HELL

-they are wrong-

HELL IS WHERE SHE

she

IS

-but although they say I dream-

THUS IT IS SO

-Oh thus it is so ! '

& you wept & wept upon my breast- & we went to Mary your grandmother & got your fine clothes & you would stay with us that week-and you promised to show me the LANDMARKS-

And to be my mother for you were distressed I HAD NO MOTHER

SHE WAS DEAD. Do you remember ?[] You should ![] For I have had all this out of her mind Peter at Lancaster Gate Square.

Please do not stop Greetah answering ! I have opened those doors in her mind with him-that devil-

`1946 November- the Engagement...we had a photo taken-me a cowboy- & his young woman- Magowan took it- I had a check shirt & had thrown away my tie- I had taken to looking in every mirror-sometimes I saw a grey hair & I would panic- but the schoolgirls of the Convent in Greetha's class made me feel very young- the Engagement w as printed in the Town newspaper owned by Fred Potter's father- But it was 25 issues- he often did this for couples- & an article on both- the happy couple...

I was even asked if I would like to take over the Printing Works-

I could then print what I liked

-so long as I turned out the town newspaper-this would not be my concern-the staff could do it on their own...I would have a salary-at this time I had no money-my brother's wife had spent it all on the house in Paris..."

ALL WAS WITH DIGNITY-GRACE

...`Greta would go on with her education at the Convent-I had great faith in them-the staff- & the Church with our choir-alongside...we had a house out on the marshes-& a Manor house was booked-one of 2 we might choose from-in a short time- Greta did not wish to take part in my adult life...there were enough women to fill this role for me in society-in my career...My sons were to be educated well...I was told there would be no problem with finance...Greta's father would see to this...but I did not see him-we were told he was overseas again...

No one told me Peter-what they were certain I knew ! It was the figure of General de Gaulle who began to feature in my future career that had them not ask questions

& I was glad-a bit reluctant at first I learned that matters printed in newspapers would not be referred to...unless I raised them first...

I was to make a marriage my mother grandmother would have approved-
